Appellation: Oregon

Sub Appellation: Willamette Valley

Varietal: Pinot Noir

Vintage: 2025

Alcohol: 14.2.% TA: 5.4 g/L pH: 3.68

Tasting Notes: Exotic aromas of wild strawberries, dusty earth, sweet rose, cinnamon stick, and leather. A juicy, red fruit driven palate with lots of plums, Bing cherries, white pepper, and candied blueberries.

Winemaker Notes: The 2025 growing season was steady and balanced, making for an easy harvest. The weather was neither too hot nor too cold, allowing the vines to grow at a comfortable pace. Bud break happened in mid-spring, and the season stayed mostly dry, which helped the vines stay healthy. As harvest approached, the weather remained steady making it a straightforward year with good conditions for growing.
