Appellation: Oregon

Sub Appellation: Willamette Valley

Varietal: Gamay Noir

Vintage: 2025

Alcohol: 13.3.% TA: 5.8 g/L pH: 3.48

Tasting Notes: A classic gamay with intoxicating aromas of fresh cranberries, green peppercorns, red cherry, and rose petal. Mouthwatering acidity with loads of red berries, tart plums, pomegranate, and earth. Wild and untamed.

Winemaker Notes: The 2025 growing season was steady and balanced, making for an easy harvest. The weather was neither too hot nor too cold, allowing the vines to grow at a comfortable pace. Bud break happened in mid-spring, and the season stayed mostly dry, which helped the vines stay healthy. As harvest approached, the weather remained steady making it a straightforward year with good conditions for growing.
